2006-2007

Forever Young

May you grow up to be righteous,
May you grow up to be true,
May you always know the truth
And see the lights
Surrounding you.
May you always be courageous,
Stand up right and be strong,
May you stay forever young,
Forever young, forever young,
May you stay forever young...

a Matata!"

ASBTRES06

ASBPRES06

The 2006-2007 Associated Student Body theme, "Hakuna Matata," familiar to us all from Disney's movie The Lion King, encouraged Wa-Hi not to fret—excellent advice for a smooth and worriless school year.

SENIORS

2007

THE LAST YEAR AT WA-HI has been filled with many memories that will be saved forever. From all of the dances, to sporting events, to clubs, to those lovely Senior class meetings with Jostens to discuss graduation. Our time has come to stroll down the grassy pathway, walk the Science Building steps, and receive an empty diploma holder. Yes!

SENIOR POWER!

Seniors at Wa-Hi are great participants in many activities. The last year, everyone is willing to engage themselves in the goings on of Wa-Hi one final time.

The Officers: President Carl Jones, Vice President Melany Muro, Treasurer Becca Club, Secretary Trevan Lightfoot

Let it all out...

2006-2007

Another year ends, another door opens. The memories
we made will last forever.

Exchange Students

...

Exchange Students every year come to Wa-Hi, and every Year they leave a little bit of them selfs in our hearts.

“ We do not remember days; we remember moments.
~ Cesare Pavese, “The Burning Brand” ”

The Eight

Atchatiya Muangrat

Where are you from? Thailand.

What kind of music do you like?
*Every kind. I like music a lot.
Hip-hop "Thailuin," a band from Thailand.*

Do you like your host family? *Yes,
I love them. They are helping me learn.*

Lieke Van Der Voort

Where are you from? Germany

What holidays are different in Germany? *On the 5th of December
we celebrate Sinterklaas. You guys stole it from us!*

Who do you miss the most? My boyfriend.

Matthias Heinze

Where are you from? The village of Abbu in Germany.

What kind of music do you like?
Hip-hop and Rap.

Do you like your host parents?
Yes. My host mom went with me to a horror movie, I was so surprised! We had fun.

Panward Meksongklod

Where are you from? Thailand

What is different about your school in Thailand? The size is similar, but the education is different. Also, the grades go 7-12 insted of 9-12.

What holidays are different? New Years. In Thailand we celebrate it on April 13-15.

Tan Onwimon

Where are you from? Thailand

What do you miss the most from home? The food!

What else do you miss from home? My cats. I have twenty-one of them!

Preethi Thomas

Where are you from? India

What is different about your school in India? The teachers move from classroom to classroom rather than the students.

What languages do you speak? *I speak
four languages: Hindi, English, Sanscript, Malayalam. I am learning Spanish here at Wa-Hi.*

Malin Jonassen

Where are you from? Norway

in the US so far? Going on the Grotto trip with the choir and shopping in Seattle with my family.

What is your favorite American food? Haiiwaan Pizza.

Stephanie Hanner

Where are you from? Germany

What is the biggest difference in the US? People consider something 7 hours away really close. At home, something just 2 hours away seems far.

What is your favorite American food?
Corn Dogs.

Homecoming: that fabulous week in October where spirit reigns and one never knows what may happen. This year the homecoming events were marked with fervor of spirit that was presided over by Spirit Queen and King Anna Forge and Lucas Miller and Spirit Princess and Prince Kylie McConnell and Justin Buley. These crazed Blue Devils attended every event and brought spirit with them wherever they went throughout the week. A highlight for many here at Wa-Hi was senior class domination. Seniors were victorious in both the Buff Puff and Powder Puff Games.

HOME COMING '06

Senior boys beat the juniors in a close three games to two. Both teams played well and the girls turned out to cheer on their boys. On Thursday the Senior girls took on the Juniors at 7:01pm for the annual Powder Puff Football Game. Fans of both teams packed the stadium and the senior football players continued the male cheerleader tradition, leading the crowd in all their favorite cheers. It proved to be quite a match. The Seniors, however, with their "License to Kill," won the game 12 to 10, continuing their class of '07 winning streak to two years. Pep band was present at both events for the first time, bringing a new level of spirit to not only those participating in the games, but those in the stands cheering them on.

Another staple of homecoming week was the daily costume theme that students and staff wholeheartedly adopted. By far the most popular theme day was Decade Day, with trends ranging from eighties pop fashion to fifties sock hop. One student even took seventies disco to new heights. Other spirit days included Class Color Day, Blue and White Day and Nerd Day.

As the moment arrived the Homecoming King and Queen for Wa-Hi 2006 were no other than Zac Cooper and Morgan Blackburn.

The week slowly came to a close with the traditional homecoming football game against Kamiakin. Although the game resulted in a loss, both teams played hard and the crowd stayed on their feet. Cheerleaders impressed spectators with new uniforms and fancy routines. At the end of the first half: the moment everyone was waiting for—especially the ten members of the Homecoming Court. Leading the Court around the field was the new addition of very spirited class floats that ranged in themes from general school spirit to the controversial message of "Scalp the Braves." The classic cars each carried a nervous princess, who was met by her respective prince. It was time to reveal the Homecoming King and Queen. Using a Cinderella-esque theme, a silver shoe marked the royal winners.

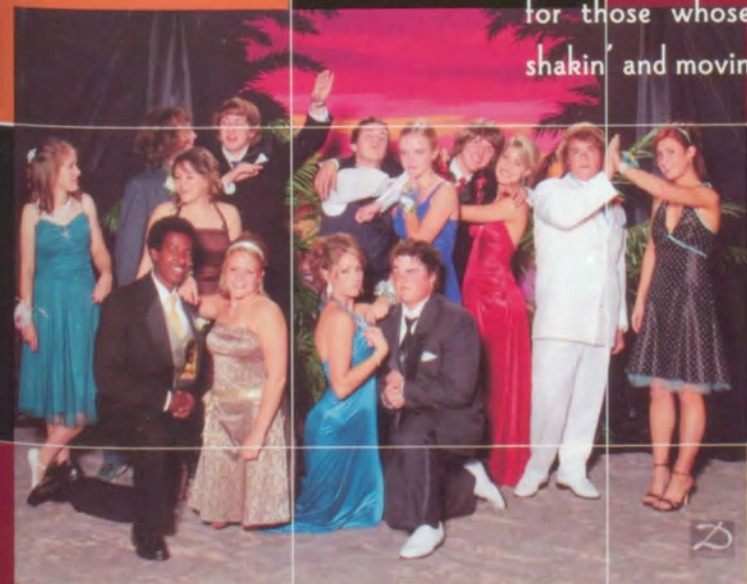

Saturday night students arrived at school for the Havana Nights Homecoming Dance. Although it started on a rocky foot when many had to wait outside in the cold to enter, this was soon forgotten as students warmed up and spent the rest of the night "rocking their bodies ... yeeaaaaah ..." Everyone danced the night away, with their dates and groups of friends. Overall, the dance was enjoyable for those whose "hips were shakin' and movin' all around."

Lunch, assemblies, spirit days, all bring our student body together--whether it be for a moment or the year. Even with all of the differences among each one of us we hold one thing in common--Wa-Hi. A place to congregate with friends, meet someone who used to be simply a face in the crowd, or just plainly pass the time in the company of peers.

Students from each grade came out to speak their minds about what draws them to Wa-Hi, why they love it...or like it... Here is what they had to say...

There is a class were you get to make flower arrangements.
-Abbey Reid

I can express myself by wearing whatever I want!
-Zack Hitchcock

Wa-Hi challenges me academically preparing me for what lies ahead in the bigger world after high school.
-Christine French

Because of our administration's undying care for our health.
-Jacob Ausejo

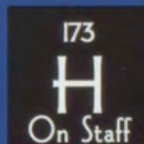

All the different people.
-Meghan Nix

Because they let me participate on the swim team.
-David Gardner

A lot of the teachers and students make it fun to come to school.
-Liz Maib

All the new things you can learn and new people you can meet.
-Jordan Van Dyke

Who doesn't 'heart' WA-HI?
-Hillary Blanc

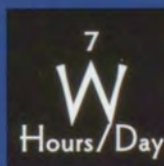

There are so many things you can do here. And you create memories that will be with you forever.

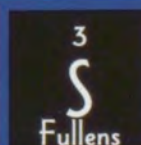

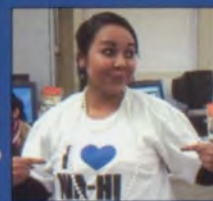

We keep things poppin.
-Charla Miller

Because it's like one big happy family, we're all different but we're all blue devils!

Clubs at Wa-Hi

Amnesty Int'l

Lori Dhoe

Amnesty International is an organization advocating human rights and fighting for prisoners of conscience.

Throughout the year they participate in Bummed Out and Mr. Wa-Hi. They also celebrated World Peace Day and Aids Day. New to this year was the added celebration of the Chinese New Year and a focus on Darfur.

Ani-Magna Club

Julie Wallace

A club new to Wa-Hi this year. Members all share a common love of Ani-Manga, a type of graphic novel (manga) using anime cells as manga frames, from Japan. Students bring in their favorite pieces and sometimes have movie nights where they watch traditional Japanese Anime Films.

Art Club

Julie Wallace

Art club holds a range of activities at Walla Walla High School and in the community. Some events include gallery walks, pottery sales, and children's art days. Students also produce their own works of art in a variety of mediums.

Blue Devil Campus Christians

Arthur Curry

This club is an inter-denominational club meant to bring together Wa-Hi's Christian students for fellowship and encouragement. Members have occasional meetings and participate in fun activities throughout the year. As a member said, "It is meant to be a blessing to all the school."

DECA

Patricia Verdun

Since 1946, DECA has been assisting in the preparation of students for the business world. This year, Wa-Hi DECA members participated in area and leadership conferences and competitions, collected items for soldiers in Iraq, and participated in the annual Sonics' and Mariners' all pro-sports marketing day in Seattle.

FBLA

Karen Dazell

Future Business Leaders of America is a club where members get the opportunity to experience the corporate world, meet local business leaders and compete in various events. This year students competed at a state level in Spokane where they met fellow FBLA members from around the state.

FCCLA

Barbara Buttice

The purpose of this organization is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living through organized activities that supplement the homemaking education program at Wa-Hi. Most members are enrolled in the new culinary arts courses now offered on campus.

French Club

Kerri Tucker

French Club is dedicated to learning more about the French culture. as a result many of the activities are centered around French food. Club projects include the ever popular bonbon sale, different french film nights, and a final end of the year meal at a local french restaurant.

Future Problem Solvers

John Buissink

Teams of four students explore challenges and propose action plans to solve complex societal problems involving cultural prejudices, conservation, fundraising, and elderly care. This year six Wa-Hi teams qualified to compete on the state level in Stanwood, Washington.

German Club

Curtis
Schafer

The German Club plans activities for students to have fun while discovering German culture. Some of these activities include German Lunch Parties with foosball games and food, Game nights at Coffee Perk, outing to Layman Hot Springs and attending many other German inspired events that occur in the community.

International Club

Michelle Higgins

International Club involves Wa-Hi students who are interested in socializing with exchange students from around the world. Exchange students may give presentations at meetings about their home country which helps encourage a deeper understanding of cultures outside of the United States.

Key Club

Shelly Mann

Key Club is a co-educational service organization for students. The Key Club at Wa-Hi has provided a total of 565 service hours this year. Their main events are working the Kiwanis food booth at the Fair, Drive-by Raking, Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF, and collecting canned goods for the Christian Aid Center.

Knowledge Bowl

Casey Monahan

Knowledge Bowl is open to students who wish to compete on an academic level with others throughout the state. Practice sessions are held at Wa-Hi and students attend meets around the region during the fall. This year's teams did Wa-Hi proud competing very well.

Latino Club

Matt Bayley

The Latino Club is very involved in community service. Students have visited different universities and colleges in Washington State throughout the school year. Members establish personal goals to attend college after high school. The club also serves to promote cultural awareness on our campus through a number of various activities.

Royal Ruckus

Lori Finn

The Royal Ruckus Club spreads spirit throughout the Wa-Hi campus. They also help promote spirit not only at sporting events but in everything they do at Wa-Hi. This year students could be seen sporting the ever so popular I (heart) Wa-Hi t-shirts.

Youth & Gov

Julie
Johnson

The Purpose of Youth and Government is to develop within youth a dedication to the values of democracy and an awareness of the need for participation and leadership in the democratic process. Members take a four day trip to Olympia each May where they debate bills that they wrote during the year or hold other elected positions.

WSU Gear Up Cougar Club

Sue Webber and Mike Gwinn

This club helps students learn how to prepare for college. By visiting North West colleges and universities students learn about the application and admissions process, earning scholarships & financial aid, and visit with current college students. Club members also have the opportunity to help middle school students transition to Wa-Hi.

Crest Club

Michelle Higgins

Crest Club is a senior girls' honorary group which provides service in a variety of areas for Wa-Hi and the community of Walla Walla. Members are invited into the club and spend the rest of that year doing small service projects leading up to the culmination blood drive for the Red Cross in May.

National Honor Society

Karen Peddicord

Students are eligible for membership in NHS upon the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Throughout the year members work on different service projects in the surrounding community.

Drama

Brian Senter

The Drama Club and the various drama classes produce and perform in various drama productions. This year they put on the fall musical review "Smokey Joe's Cafe" and performed "The Crucible" in the spring to rave reviews. They are dramatic.

Wa-Hi Journal

Gay Buissink

The Wa-Hi Journal class consists of writing and producing the school newspaper. Students are staff writers, editors, and photographers, or sell ads as part of the business management team. The editors spent several hours on the weekends throughout this year laying out the pages for nine issues.

Boy's Federation

Jeromy
Maupin

Boys' Federation is composed of all Wa-Hi boys and is the coordinating organization for all boys' activities. The organization's primary objective is to be a service club for the school and community. Elected Officers (pictured left) are president, vice president and secretary/ treasurer.

Girl's League

Julie Gaffney

Girl's League is for "Women with a vision" and every girl belongs. The Wa-Hi chapter is very involved on campus hosting two banquets during the school year; the Father/ Daughter and the Mother/ Daughter, they try and incorporate family involvement as well. They also hosted the Wild Wild West, Sadie Hawkins Dance this year.

"Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live and living to serve."

FFA members participate in many competitions, including activities such as tractor driving, floriculture, horticulture, and testing in various agricultural topics. This year they entered a float in the Parade of Lights.

U.S. Army JROTC

The JROTC program at Wa-Hi allows cadets to participate in several groups and events. Special teams compete in drills and other competitions throughout the year.

Aside from single events like Military Ball and Dining-In and various community service opportunities, JROTC students have an Annual Review and week-long camp at Fort Lewis over Spring break.

JROTC gives students several opportunities to challenge themselves intellectually while also offering them chances to learn how to repel, safely shoot rifles, and experience boot camp activities.

Forever Fashion Forward

Annette and Jeanette Perales, sophomores, use fashion as a creativity outlet. Annette, in the striped shirt, finds fashion inspiration from the 80's- adding her own twist for a modern flair. Her sister, Jeanette, believes that what she wears truly expresses her personal fashion frenzy. Both girls are unique to one another, while Jeanette enjoys dresses with a cute pair of shoes, Annette prefers converse and jeans.

Dustin Ferral, junior, adores his "stunna shades." Friends tell him he worries too much about clothing, making him a prime choice for the fashion forward crew. His style is important because in his eyes, "it brings respect!"

Posing together for a headshot, Michelle Reardon and Phoung Pham add spice to the fashion scene at Wa-Hi. Although a smaller town, we still have big fashion.

Mac Richards feels style is a personal matter. He believes he was chosen as fashion forward because he is "ridiculously good looking." Who can argue?

Justin Porter has a thing for cowboy boots, red ones to be exact. He has been noted to say if he could wear anything it would be simply some red cowboy boots ... no need to accessorize further. When asked why he was selected as fashionable he responded, "My fashion melts faces." I was wondering why my face was hot.

John Herbert, senior extraordinaire is a humble guy describing himself as "freakin' studly!" His favorite ensemble to adorn includes jeans-tight jeans-, his famed coat and some lucky underoos. Style deems important in his eyes because, "You gotta spend money somewhere...right? Spend Money = Help Economy???" That's right John, keep on supporting that economy. However, his favorite place to shop is Ebay, not necessarily money going to the economy ... Whatever works though. Claiming deep thoughts and art as fashion inspirations the look on this boy's face definitely parallels his belief. What is he thinking?

Phoung Pham loves high fashion and culture. Victoria's Secret (yes they have clothing and shoes) is one of her favorite stores. Paris and Milan also provide her fashion inspiration.

Michael Blackwood has his own take on why he was chosen. "It's not just that I am concerned with my appearance. I think people know that I like what I'm wearing and I feel comfortable in my clothes. You don't have to wear a button shirt every day- a hoodie and 501's are all you need sometimes. Your clothes just have to fit."

Donna Miranda finds inspiration in Hilary Duff's philosophy: "If you feel comfortable in it, wear it. It doesn't matter what people think." She loves mixing things together just as long as she has her heart necklaces!

Maeve McClellan claims she paid me to get on this page, but clearly Maeve is a fashionista all her own. For her, style is like playing dress up (the next best thing to Barbie ... she says she is too old for dolls.) The piece of clothing held closest to her heart is a Marina Mustang hoodie that doesn't fit. Hey, if you like it, wear it. 2020 in Seattle is her favorite shopping spot; not only does Maeve find great clothes, but the store helps save the planet too!

Michelle Reardon, sophomore, believes her style claims her "medication should be regulated." However, her creativeness in dressing, inspired by Vogue, vintage icons and her best friend Glynis, show that her state of mind is just fine. Michelle's favorite outfit includes a jean mini skirt, a long, lacy tank, a cardigan because she gets cold, and her ultimate stilleto heel knee-high camo boots. Wow. That is what personal fashion is all about!

Dave VanDewark is known for his amazing shoes and unmistakable bright orange hat. Jack White and music in general inspire this laid back guy when it comes to fashion. Not only clothing makes Dave stand out, but his sweet parrot button gives him a little help as well.

Sometimes hair just gets in the way. A little adjustment and the photo shoot continues. No pain, no gain.

Forever Trendy

1 THIS STUDENT EXPRESSES HERSELF WITH BOLD PATTERS

2 DISTRESSED DEIM WAS A COMMON SIGHT AMONG ALL

3 OVERSIZED BAGS REPLACED THE TRADITIONAL BACKPACK

4 BALLETE FLATS RETURNED THIS YEAR IN AN EVEN MORE COLORFUL SPECTRUM

5 HEADBANDS GALOR, SHOW A STRIPE OF COLOR IN YOUR HAIR AND YOU ARE IN

6 CHUNKY BELTS AND BOOTS PARADED AROUND CAMPUS

Students at Wa-Hi represent a large section of the population. We have goths, punks, preps and even jocks. With this mix of students what is deemed trendy varies by social group.

diversity

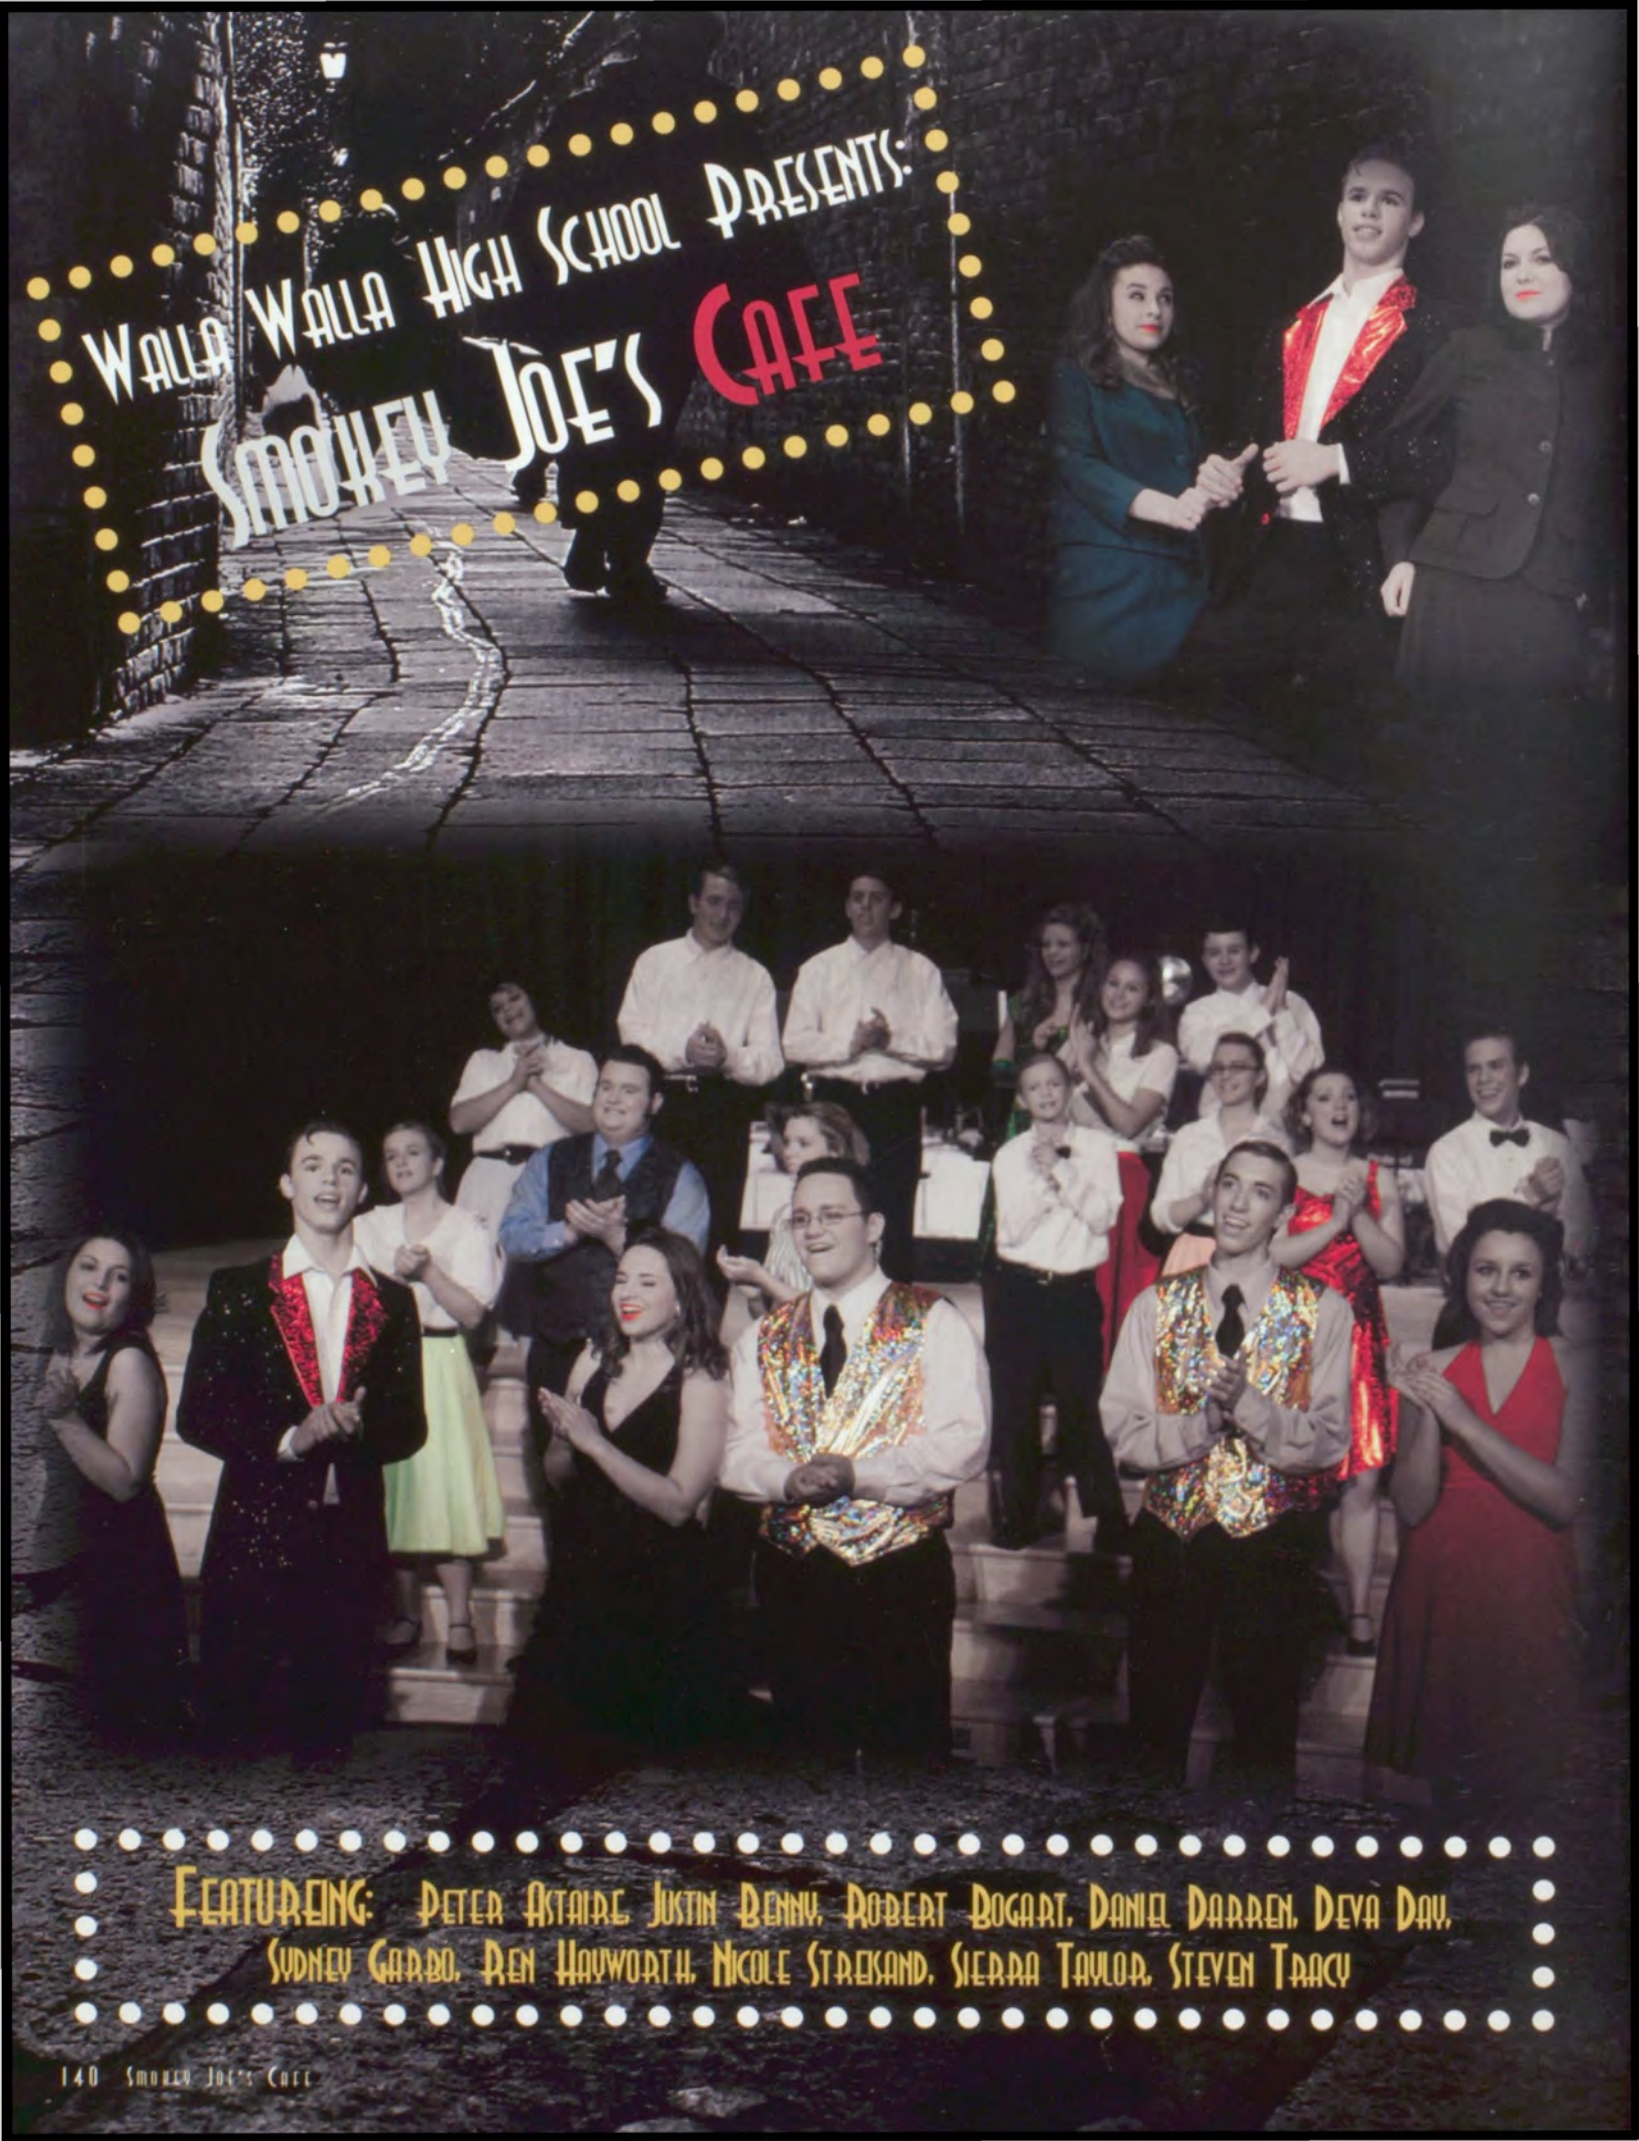

This year trends ranged from antique lace to eighties brights to the bohemian chic of the 1960s. Some might say that the fashion trends of this year were quite out of their minds, while others would say ingenious. Popular accessories were giant beads, sunglasses, bags, and belts. Basically, if it was oversized you were in. Except when it came to pants, much to the pleasure of many people, baggy pants left style and a more classic look came back in for guys. Conversely, another popular male style was punk; these kids dress tough and sometimes act it. Piercings, converse, black, and band memorabilia were seen throughout campus. Girls had their own form of punk bringing back hot pink and skinny jeans, which also flowed into mainstream fashion. Pair a set of skinny jeans with a long, lacy tunic top and you would be at the height of teenage cool. Femininity came back in. The skirts and dresses that used to be considered stuffy and prudish showed up in flocks. Long or short, straight or flouncy these feminine friends were a staple. Bangs came back this year and not those fourth grade soda can bangs but bangs with an air of sophistication often side swept or falling over the face. With such a wide range of stylistic trends it became very easy to create your own personal style and step away from the cookie cutter mold of fashion.

WALLA WALLA HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTS:
SMOKEY JOE'S CAFE

FEATURING: PETER AITAIRE, JUSTIN BENNY, ROBERT BOGART, DANIEL DARRIN, DEVA DAV, SUDNEY GABDO, BEN HAWORTH, NICOLE STAEKAND, SIERRA TAYLOR, STEVEN TRACY

SMOKEV JOE'S CAFE WAS A GREAT JOY FOR US TO PRODUCE THIS FALL. THIS IS A VERY UNIQUE SHOW IN THAT IT CONTAINS LITTLE DIALOGUE AND CRAMS FORTY-TWO SONGS INTO A TWO HOUR SHOW. THE SHOW TRACKS THE LIVES OF PEOPLE LIVING AND LOVING IN THE SAME NEIGHBORHOOD DURING THE FIFTIES IN AMERICA. WE WERE ABLE TO HAVE A WONDERFUL LARGE CAST THAT SHOWCASED SO MANY OF OUR TALENTED STUDENTS.

-MR. SENTER

THE WALLA WALLA HIGH SCHOOL DEPARTMENT HAS ALWAYS STRIVED FOR A LEVEL OF EXCELLENCE IN THEIR PRODUCTIONS AND THIS YEAR'S PRODUCTION OF SMOKEV JOE'S CAFE WAS NO EXCEPTION. WITH AN ALL-STAR CAST, SMOKEV JOE'S BROUGHT THE FEEL OF THE SPIRITED 50'S AND 60'S TO NIGHTLY AUDIENCES. WELL KNOWN SONGS SUCH AS VANITY VAN AND BABY LOVES ROCK AND ROLL WERE GIVEN NEW LIFE UNDER THE STAGING OF DAAM SENTER AND VOCAL COACHING OF RHONDA GARRARD. OTHER NUMBERS INCLUDED JAILHOUSE ROCK AND SPANISH HARLEM WHICH WERE ACCENTUATED WITH DAUGHT PERIOD CLOTHING AND WELL CHOREOGRAPHED DANCE ROUTINES. STAND OUT PERFORMANCES WERE THOSE OF ROBERT BOETCHER, SYDNEY GARRARD, AND DEVA PARRISH.

▼ Forever Students

Forever Finding Fun

- ▶ English classes call for a variety of things: essays, poems, drawing evil ...
- ▶ To stay entertained in Psychology, students talk about controversial issues.
- ▶ Mr. Peasely adds some spice to History with History Channel videos.
- ▶ Mr. Ferenz integrates fun with his Calculus puns.

For 180 days a year every student spends up to 7 hours on campus. Take a look into the school lives of a handful of your peers--you never know who you will see when you take a second look.

Forever the Student Life

Walking past the office, students engage in conversations of every topic.

iPods appeared all over campus this year. Listening to music personalizes the day for students in each grade.

Frolics: Those sporadic occurrences that let students spend time together outside of classes and dance the night away to an eclectic mix of Hip Hop, Pop, Techno, and some older classics. In addition to Frolics the more traditional dances of Tolo and Sadies allow the women to take their pick of all of those strapping young Wa-Hi gents. With Prom and Homecoming so far apart students crave the endorphin inducing high energy rush that dances provide. Not only do they lend much needed entertainment for our small town but are also the sorbet used to cleanse the palate between Homecoming and Prom.

Forever Frolicing

Between Homecoming and Prom, there are numerous frolics, Tolo, and Sadies to keep us dacing all year long.

Couples engaged in intimate slow dancing to the chagrin of many administrators. The ceasement of dance contracts no longer hindered the provacative motions, but they were still cause to be kicked out.

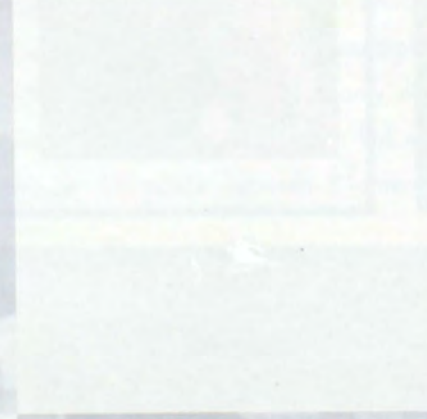

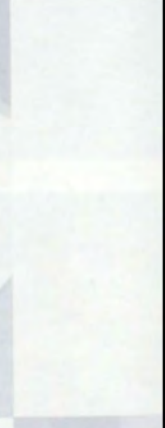

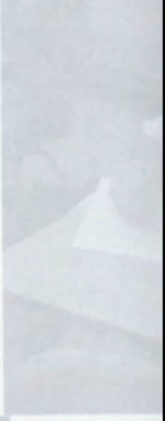

The Snow Ball was the lovely theme of the of this year's Tolo. Patrons were dressed in frosty colors from head to toe. Held in the Commons, not as many students attended as anticipated.

Throughout the year Frolics of varying themes took place in the Commons: Moulin Rogue, the Luau, Black and White, Decades, and even the infamous Techno Frolic. Party time!

Conspiracy of Hope 2007 Helped Raise $2,605

Conspiracy of HOPE

This year Conspiracy was once again dedicated to Dave Meyer and his family. The funds, however, went to a new cause: The Save Darfur Fund, that helps stop the genocide occurring in Sudan. This year's Masters of Ceremony, Matt Waring and Carl Jones, brought an air of friendly competition to the event. Musical numbers and intermittent SNL parodies performed by Zach Brown and Sydney Boyd inspired peals of laughter from the well entertained audience.

1 Funds For Save Darfur

Other highlight acts included traditional Thai children's songs, a Say Anything cover, The Lost Boys, and a comedy piece. Andi Bughi and Cierra Christensen danced to "It's Raining Men" and Sara Hodson and Joel Herbert doubled up for a heartfelt number. For the big finish 509 brought down the house as the crew and all the performers rushed the stage to dance.

FOREVER SOLES

Everyday thousands of shoes cross our campus, here are just a few of them ...

*To lead people, walk beside them ...
As for the best leaders, the people do not notice their existence.
The next best, the people honor and praise.
The next, the people fear;
and the next, the people hate ...
When the best leader's work is done the people say,
We did it ourselves*

One of the best experiences of my life. Leadership camp is a complete eye opener, and a realization that everyone is human. Every moment was important and filled with laughter and feeling. The only disappointment of that trip was having to leave."

- Alecia Nolder, 10th grade

FOREVER LEADERS

Wa-Hi students from every grade come together to make a better tomorrow.

For the second year now Wa-Hi hosted a leadership camp for students. Participants go to Camp Meadow Wood Springs where they spend three days bonding with fellow schoolmates. The camp focuses on student diversity and working on finding common ground for students of all different backgrounds and social groups. Taking students out of the school environment gives them the chance to see each other in a new light where the stereotypes of high school do not apply. Upon returning to Wa-Hi camp members reported that they had made new bonds they would continue to develop back on campus.

Camp is awesomely fun. You meet new people you never would have met. It takes down barriers of race and other social barriers. It is truly life changing. Camp is one of the best things you can ever do at Wa-Hi.”

- Luke Hicks, 10th grade

Leadership camp is a truly remarkable experience. I would suggest to anyone to go. It's a great place to make good friends, learn about yourself, and change your perspective on life and other people. If you're unsure about going then do it. You won't regret it.”

- Douglas Murphy, 10th grade

Leadership Camp made me have a whole new outlook on first impressions. You should go!!!”

- Jennifer Cains, 10th grade

The group of students who went to camp were from all parts of the social spectrum. Everyone got on so well despite new faces.

Some kid, Josh Klingenburg, and Morgan Blackburn make joyous faces at the camera. It just goes to show how much they enjoyed themselves.

The ever enjoyable log, stick walk was endured by all of the students and staff who attended camp. Look at the excitement! Wow!!

The Next Chapter...

What will you miss about Wa-Hi?

Barbara Fryhling

"Most of all I will miss the students. They are always happy to see me in the morning. No matter how hard it was to get out of bed, they make me feel happy to be at school. I will also miss my co-workers who have helped me so much. I regret that the school is so large there are still many people I don't know."

What will you do with retirement?

"I look forward to more Leisure time. I am planning to reestablish old friendships, do some traveling, and start sorting through boxes of photos."

Julie Gaffeny

Mrs. Gaffeny, what more to say about this amazing and talented teacher? We are all sad to see her go. May she embark on her new adventure in life with success. She teaches English strategies so that the students succeed on the W.A.S.L and experience a school environment filled with fun and enjoyment.

Wa-Hi students exude spirit when it comes to

Wa-Hi Marching and Pep Band

Our dedicated band members add spice to each home game they play at. The marching band rehearses countless hours to spend halftime standing in the cold providing the entertainment. If anyone attends a game sans pep band, automatically the feel of the entire game changes. Music brings an element necessary for sporting events.

sports. Painted faces, homemade shirts, and various paraphernalia in blue and white adorns the stands at every home game. Our cheerleaders encourage the crowd to engage in morale boosting cheers to keep our teams going strong.

This year our cheerleaders added a new level of difficulty to their typical routine: tricks and tosses. The awe factor of these gravity defying talents inspired the crowd to become even more excited about the game they watched then they already were. Without our cheer team, less spirit would ooze from our supporting crowd.

Wa-Hi fans who attended the home games were always decked out in blue and white. From head to toe there was no mistaking what school they supported. Students painted there faces, brought pom-poms, and found unique props to elevate their level of spirit. Not only did the students watching dress up, but this year Wa-Hi had two nights where the outside community participated as well: White Out and Blue Out. The stands appeared to be a massive sea of Wa-Hi colors worn not just by students, but fans of all ages. We've got spirit! What? Yeah, Yeah We've got spirit? What? Yeah, Yeah We've got what? What? What? What what what what what? We've got spirit!

forever designers

Advisor: Mrs. DeBroeck

Editor in Chief: Kelsey Beckmeyer

Editor in Chief: Quinn Tomlin

Co-Editor: Emily Pinney

Photographer/Editor: Lila Marie Coleman

Co-Editor: Skyler Moore

This year became a transition for yearbook. We changed advisors, from Mr. Peck to Mrs. DeBroeck. Although rough at the start, the end product turned out beautifully (if we do say so ourselves,) and a lot of fun was had along the way. With the previous experience of us, we were able to guide the newbies through the workings of InDesign and PhotoShop. Although our photo editor, Lila, already possessed mind-blowing skills with a camera, let alone PhotoShop. So much work and tedious effort was put into each page, this is the best book we have put out. We are proud.

Even though there are deadlines to meet and an unimaginable amount of stress associated with yearbook, we know how to relax and have fun. The others members of staff added laughter and an element of entertainment that was greatly appreciated. From the random music selections to the "Fortress" we attempted to build ... not to mention the hair jar ... don't ask ... Each day coming to class meant something unforeseen would happen. With all that aside, we are proud to give you this book.

"May you always be courageous,
Stand upright and be strong,
May you stay forever young."
